E-NEWSLETTER

Getting Ready for St. Valentine

On Saturday Feb 9th, we'll be getting into the spirit of Valentine's day by hosting a free, Make your Own Valentine's Workstation. Bring the kids so they can make their very own Valentine creations from 10:30 AM - 2:00 PM. We'll provide the art supplies and clean up the mess! You can pick up lunch and Valentine's gift's at the store and enjoy the music of singer/ songwriter/ guitarist/ comedian Rob Neukrich on American Afternoon from noon to 1:30pm. Rob is sure to sing a couple of songs for your Valentine—but watch out—when Rob is on stage you are never sure whether the next moment he will make you laugh or cry! Americana afternoon continues after 1:30pm with open mic.

We are also selling our special Valentines cookies and cup cakes for you to share with your sweetie!

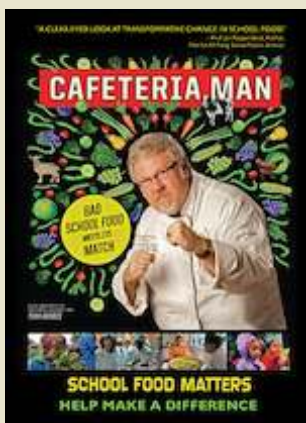

The Floyd Radio Show & Podcast

Come on out and join us for the Floyd Radio Show this Saturday, February 9 at 7:30 PM. Special guests include Hugh and Zane Campbell, Scott Perry and Ada Sherman. Tickets are still available.

Now you may also listen to all the past shows with the Floyd Radio Show Podcast, just in case you missed one or just need to hear a show again. Be sure to share them with your friends!

Join the Discussion about Farm to School

On Saturday Feb 16, SustainFloyd presents the film Cafeteria Man—a documentary about the successful struggle to bring healthy local food into the Baltimore School System. The film will be followed by a panel and community discussion about the possibilities for local food to be served in the Floyd School System. Come early to share in the Finger Foods Buffet at 6:00pm and the film at 6:30pm.

Tickets are $5 for the film and an additional donation for the food. The film is sponsored by Riverstone Organic Farm, a supplier of many fresh ingredients for soups and salads at the Floyd Country Store
