Family Gathering

Sometimes the whole family, including the dog, participates in the fun on Friday night in Floyd. On a fine summer evening you can expect some good entertainment on the street and some wonderful traditional Appalachian gospel music, old time music and dancing inside the Floyd Country Store. Bring the family and enjoy a colorful evening in Floyd.

The Dry Hill Dragers

This family friendly Old Time Country Dance will feature the infectious dance music of the Dry Hill Dragers. From Franklin County the Dragers started with banjo player Jimmy Boyd and his brother, Billy Boyd in 1981. The group has persevered even as some members have passed on. Join us Saturday, June 15, 7:30 pm and dance the night away. Tickets are $8.00 at the door.

Farm Fresh

The Country Store partners with Riverstone Organic Farm to get fresh produce and eggs for our salads, soups and quiche, so you can enjoy some truly fresh and local product at our café.

This weekend, during the Floyd Artisan Trail

Tour, Riverstone Organic Farm is open to visitors, June 14 to 16. There will be guided tours at the farm on Saturday and Sunday at 10:00am and 3:00pm. See the sheep, chickens and piglets, along with the superb fields of fresh crops and a run down of how the farm operates. You can also walk trails in the woods and along the Little River and you can enjoy a picnic at the river. Call 540 230 0020 for information. The Floyd Country Store will be making take out picnic lunches that you can pick up at the store. A salad plate of our homemade chicken salad, tuna salad, or tofu salad on a bed of Riverstone salad greens comes with Sweetwater Bakery artisan bread and a fresh baked country store cookie for $7.95. A brown bag lunch with our pimento cheese spread on artisan bread with coleslaw and a cookie is $6.95. Call the store in advance and we will have your picnic ready to pick up. 540 745 4563.
