Learn to do it Right

Flatfooting is one of the mainstays of the dance floor at The Friday Night Jamboree. It is a traditional Appalachian dance style handed down through the generations.

There is a magic synchrony that happens when the band and the dancers are working together. Be part of the fun by learning from our award winning flatfooter, Rick Sutphin. We are offering our Flatfooting 101 class from 5:00pm to 6:00pm on Fridays. It will help you get started and become a real participant in the evenings fun. Email us for more details or to book your dance lesson. Lessons cost $15 per person ($10 for students).

Your Secret Chef

Make Labor Day weekend parties and picnics simple this year. We are now packaging our much-loved homemade salads to go. Choose from chicken salad, tuna salad, pimento cheese spread, egg salad, potato salad or hummus, or pick up several for an instant party spread!

Come on by and see us soon!
