ARE WE HAVING FUN YET?

It seems the most important qualification you need to have fun dancing at the Floyd Country Store is to be young at heart. Our regular crowd at the store pretty much falls into that category. From babes in arms, to great grandmas (and even a few great-greats!)—they get out on the dance floor and light up with delight. Don't forget our new dance classes, available from 5:00pm to 6:00pm on Friday evenings. We're interested to share this great piece of Appalachian culture, and with a little instruction you can quickly learn the basics of the real steps. Call us at 540 745 4563 to sign up.

ENJOY THE FALL HARVEST AT OUR CAFE

Soups are such great comfort food on these cooler fall days. Our soups are not what you might expect from a little country store. We buy fresh local product, straight from the farm and make a variety of delicious, hearty soups, which we serve with local artisan bread from Sweetwater Bakery. Try our new beet and cabbage soup, or our regular favorite, homemade cream of tomato. You'll also see fresh, local cauliflower, kale red peppers, winter squash and more on the menu in the next few weeks. Be sure to check the specials on the menu—and leave room for one of our home baked desserts.

OCTOBER'S RADIO SHOW

The Floyd Radio Show is in full swing and next Saturday, October 5th is sure to be a blast. Special guests include Bukuru Celestin, an amazing African gospel musician, Trevor McKenzie & Steve Kruger, and Jim Lloyd whom are some of the region's finest old time musicians and storytellers. The seats were filled up at September's show so be sure to get your tickets ahead of time. Learn more about October's special guests and upcoming shows here. Don't forget to check out the past show podcasts, with all of the first two seasons.
